The Winners of $100 Offered by the Abner-Drury Brewing Co.

We take pleasure in announcing the names of the prize winners in our Essay Contest on

> Why People Drink "Royal Pilsen" Why People Drink "Old Glory" Why People Drink "Progressive Brew"

We take this opportunity to thank the many who sent us contributions, and only wish we could give them all prizes. The many kindly words we have received about our beers prove to us that our efforts to make them pure, wholesome, and nourishing are appreciated. We shall continue to deserve your confidence and good will.

First Prize, $25.

Won by H. Felter, 211 Morgan Street

Northwest. I drink "Royal Pilsen" because I like it. And I like it for the reason that it is as kingly in quality and favor-finding attributes as its name implies. Drunk in moderation, it is as healthful and wholesome as exercise. In fact, good beer and exercise are twin brothers.

good beer and exercise are twin brothers.

Malt, barley, and hops have long been recognized for their medical and body-building qualities, and to say that good beer, such as "Royal Pilsen" has no such qualities is to belie the nature of the ingredients of which it is composed.

Fourth Prize, $10.00, Fifth Prize, $7.50, Sixth Prize, $5.00,

Won by Arthur Mapes Reilly, 1234 Co-lumbia road. Seventh Prize, $5.00, Won by Fred Lanx, 1447 Pa. ave. se.

Second Prize, $20.

Won by R. C. Roark, Bureau of Chemistry, Washington, D. C.
Why do I drink "Old Glory?" Because it is made in Washington and by drinking it I am helping a home industry; because I can visit the Abmer-Drury Brewing Company and see for myself that in every step of its preparation the utmost care is exercised in the selection of all ingredients, in maintaining cleanliness of surroundings, and in carrying out all the processes of manufacture according to the best brewing practice, and because not only in purity, but also in nourishing qualities, appearance, flavor, and thirst-quenching power it is unexcelled by any dark beer on the market.

Eighth Prize, $2.50, Won by Mrs. M. C. Dennison, 1519 R st. nw. Ninth Prize, $2.50,

Won by Mercedes Walsh, 44 Alendale Apts, N. H. ave. and N st.

Tenth Prize, $2.50, A. E. Barry, 1825 24th st. Eleventh Prize, $1.00, Won by A. W. Fannin, 413 E st. ne.

Announcement of the Judges

One cannot hope to be happy unless possessed of health, which is largely dependent upon good nourishment.

In the game of life the trump card is nutrition, whose needs are best met by the use of "Progressive Brew," the new temperance food-drink of perfect purity.

It is readily assimilated and combines the necessary food-elements in addition to the beneficial effects of hops so that by conserving nutrition "Progressive Brew" keeps the entire system in good condition and affords conclusive proof of merit.

Twelfth Prize, $1.00,

Fourteenth Prize, $1.00,

Won by Capers F. Rogers, 1752 Oregon ave.

Saturday. Sunday cloudy; light variable winds.
An extensive area of low barometric pressure covers practically all districts from the Mississippi Valley castward, and within it there are three storm centers, one over Illinois, another over Western Pennsylvania, and a third off Cape Cod. The last named disturbance is of considerable intensity, and during the last twenty-four hours it caused high winds along the New England and off the Middle Atlantic coasts. There were general worse within the last twenty-four hours in the Middle Atlantic and New England States, and local snows in Ohio, Upper Mississippi, and Missouri vallers, and the region of the Great Lakes, in other parts of the country the weather remained generally fair.
Temperatures are somewhat lower in the Northern Plains States, and they have changed little caswhere. Absormally warm weather is general west.
The indications are that there will be local snows
Saturday in the Middle Atlantic States, the Ohio and Upper Mississippi, tallers, and the southern of the Rocky Mountains.

The indications are that there will be local snows a Saturday in the Middle Atlantic States, the Ohio hand Upper Mississippi valleys, and the southern portion of the Lake region, and Saturday and probably Sunday in the North Atlantic States. One of Mr. Vanderbilt's chief pleasures was to give aid to struggling artists. There are scores of successful painters who today owe their success to the aid given them by Mr. Vanderbilt in their early years. Mr. Vanderbilt was one of the few members of his family who had devoted himself almost entirely to outdoor life and his artistic interests.
